

Seattle Office of Housing

Owner/Property Manager	Phone	Website	About
Artspace Projects, Inc.		www.artspace.org	Artspace is a national leader in the field of developing affordable space that meets the needs of artists through the adaptive reuse of historic buildings and new construction.
Bellwether Housing	206.623.0506	www.bellwetherhousing.org	Bellwether Housing creates stable communities and access to opportunity through affordable housing. We develop and manage homes for people with limited incomes near job centers, transit, and services.
Capitol Hill Housing	206.329.7303	http://capitolhillhousing.org	Affordable city living - locally owned and managed properties in the heart of urban convenience.
Catholic Housing Services	206.328.5696	http://ccsww.org/catholic-housing-services	Established in 1979, Catholic Housing Services of Western Washington, (CHS, formerly known as the Archdiocesan Housing Authority) develops, owns and manages affordable housing programs for low-income families and individuals. We provide supportive services for people who have experienced homelessness, low income seniors, farm worker families, and those who have special physical and mental needs. We own or manage approximately 2,100 housing units at 50 properties through Western Washington.
Compass Housing Alliance	206.474.1000	www.compasshousingalliance.org	Compass Housing Alliance provides housing, shelter and support services to people experiencing homelessness and poverty in the Puget Sound region.
Delridge Neighborhood Development Assoc. (DNDA)	206.923.0917	https://dnnda.org	DNDA currently owns seven buildings in the Delridge area of West Seattle with a total of 144 units for rent. All of our buildings offer housing that is less expensive than for-profit buildings so that families with lower incomes can always live in Delridge.
El Centro de la Raza	206.957.4634	www.elcentrodelaraza.org	El Centro believes that only through civic involvement, grassroots organizing, and political and social activism will our community be able to effectively address the profound contradictions facing our world. We unite communities of all races, genders, ages and classes to fight for civil and human rights both locally and globally.
Interim Community Development Association	206.623.5132	http://interimcda.org	Interim CDA addresses the problem of homelessness and housing affordability in two ways: first by providing direct housing services prevent homelessness; and second, by building or renovating housing to increase the supply of affordable housing in our region.
Low Income Housing Institute (LIHI)	See "Find Housing" on LIHI website	https://lihi.org	The Low Income Housing Institute develops, owns and operates housing for the benefit of low-income, homeless and formerly homeless people in Washington State; advocates for just housing policies at the local and national levels; and administers a range of supportive service programs to assist those we serve in maintaining stable housing and increasing their self-sufficiency.
Mercy Housing Northwest	206.838.5700	www.mercyhousing.org/washington	Mercy Housing is creating stable, vibrant and healthy communities for Washington State residents. We build homes, transform lives and help families, individuals and seniors become self sufficient by providing permanent housing with supportive services for our families.
Mt. Baker Housing Association	206.725.4152	www.mtbakerhousing.org	At Mt. Baker Housing Association, our mission is to improve lives and strengthen communities in southeast Seattle by creating quality, affordable housing and supporting our residents.
Mt. Zion Housing Development			McKinney Manor and Price Arms
Pike Place Market PDA	See website for information on finding housing	http://pikeplacemarket.org/residential	Pike Place Market is more than a public market; it's a vibrant neighborhood home of 500 residents, many of whom are low-income people. The Pike Place Market Preservation and Development Authority (PDA) has three HUD subsidized buildings located directly within Pike Place Market,
Seattle Chinatown International District PDA	206.624.8929	https://scidpda.org	SCIDpda owns and/or manages nearly 500 units of affordable housing for more than 700 low-income residents in the heart of the Chinatown International District.
Seattle Housing Authority	206.615.3300	www.seattlehousing.org	Housing and supportive services for people with low incomes
South East Effective Development (SEED)	206.723.7333	www.seedseattle.org	SEED's mission is to improve the quality of life in Southeast Seattle by creating partnerships and inspiring investments in housing, arts and economic development - with a special focus on residents with fewer opportunities and resources.
Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle	206.461.3791	www.urbanleague.org	Colman School. We empower African Americans and underserved communities to thrive by securing educational and economic opportunities.
YWCA Seattle King Snohomish	206.461.4888	www.ycaworks.org	We work to help women and families find and maintain safe, stable housing. We envision a future where we overcome racial and gender disparities and reduce institutional and societal barriers that drive inequities in homelessness and access to permanent, affordable housing.

This is not a comprehensive list of all affordable housing owners providers in Seattle. Agencies taking referrals exclusively from Coordinated Entry for all or other referral sources are not included on this list.