Key Program Strategies (Please provide a brief overview of program strategies including number of students served and program costs):

1. Trained UW college student mentors provide 1-2 hours per week of direct in-school support and 1-2 hours per week of email/text/social media contact support to Juniors and Seniors, each week throughout the school year, around high school graduation requirements, college readiness, college applications, FAFSA completion, and any other postsecondary planning students require; cost= ~100-150 students per school, October-June, 3-4 hours per week each week = $21,200.
2. 3 large-scale weekend and after school events throughout the year; 1 bringing high school juniors to a college campus for an all-day exploration field trip; 1 serving seniors at their school or on a college campus to complete college applications; 1 bringing seniors to a college campus to complete FAFSAs and scholarships; cost= ~100-150 students per school, October-June, total of 28 hours at events per student each year = $3,900.
